To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore
Muzrai Department

Sir,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No 1335 of the 8th Instant calling for a report on the proposal made at the Representative Assembly of 1893 to transfer the Government feeding Chuttiram of Gubbi to Banasandra a Railway station in the Tiptur Taluk on the ground that several travellers pass through the latter place, I have the honor to state that if the transfer be effected the persons travelling through Gubbi will be inconvenienced. However more travellers pass through Banasandra. A Musafer Khana has since

seen built there

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant

W. Venable Conway
